DEFN

Hand-drawn wireframe of a photo upload popup. The popup has a title bar with a close button (X). The main area contains a large oval placeholder labeled "YOUR FOTO". Below the placeholder are two buttons: "UPLOAD" and "SELECT". The entire popup is labeled "Popup" in the top left corner.
